

Himalaya International School

EVS

Class-IV

Assignment- 2

Tick the correct options:

Q1. Which of the following is not the cause of water pollution?

- A. bathing and washing clothes in ponds
- B. factory wastes releasing in river
- C. Oil spills
- D. Planting trees

Q2. Which of the following is not the effects of water pollution?

- A. water become unfit for drinking
- B. diseases like Cholera and dysentery
- C. diseases like diabetes and colour blindness
- D. killing of aquatic animals and plants

Q3. Water that is suitable for _____ is called Potable water

- A. Drinking
- B. washing clothes
- C. washing utensils
- D. mopping floor

Q4. Vessels containing drinking water should always be covered otherwise_____.

- A. dust particles or insects may fall into it
- B. water will be finished
- C. water will be evaporated
- D. Water will be condensed

Q5. Oil spills pollute_____.

- A. Water
- B. Air
- C. Land
- D. Soil

Q6. A long path dug into the ground to carry water from a river to the fields is called _____.

- A. Glacier
- B. Reservoir
- C. Spring
- D. Canal

Q7. The place where _____ starts is called its source.

- A. Pond
- B. Glacier
- C. Lake
- D. River

Q8. Wet clothes dry due to _____.

- A. Condensation
- B. Irrigation
- C. Respiration
- D. Evaporation

Q9. We can make manure out of _____.

- A. Plastic
- B. Metals
- C. dry leaves
- D. Glass

Q10. It is a very good method of disposing degradable waste.

- A. Burning
- B. Composting
- C. Landfills
- D. Open dumping

Q11. Write T for True or F for False.

- A. Our earth is the only planet that has plenty of water.
- B. The earth is also called the red planet.
- C. Most of the freshwater on earth comes from the sea.
- D. Springs are common in plains.

- E. Lakes, ponds and rivers are the different sources of inland water.
- F. We obtain salt from seawater..
- G. Rivers have freshwater.
- H. Snow-fed rivers have water throughout the year.

Short answer questions:

Q12. What do you mean by Potable water?

Q13. What are pollutants?

Q14. What is irrigation?

Q15. Why is the earth called a blue planet?

Long answer questions:

Q16. Differentiate between snow-fed rivers and rain-fed rivers.

Q17. Water is precious. Give a reason

Q18. Write three ways in which water gets polluted.

Q19. How can we keep drinking water clean?

Q20. Write down the steps for purification of water.