Worksheet-1 (Reading)

Read the unseen passage given below and answer the questions that follow.

For many days and months, Valli carefully listened to her neighbours and bus riders. Slowly she got the information about the bus journey. She learned that the town was six miles away. The fare was only thirty paise one way, which seemed like a lot to her. The trip took forty-five minutes, and she could return on the same bus by paying another thirty paise. This meant she could take the one-o'clock afternoon bus, reach the town at one forty-five, and be back home by about two forty-five.

On a sunny spring day, she shouted for the bus to stop. She got on with her money. She told the conductor that she had to go to town. She handed the fare money to the conductor.

Q1.What did Valli do for many days and months?

Q2.How far was the town from Valli's village?

Q3.How much was the fare for a one-way bus trip?

Q4.What time could Valli take the one-o'clock afternoon bus and be back home?

Q5.Why did Valli shout for the bus to stop on a sunny spring day?

Read the unseen passage given below and answer the questions that follow-

Once there was a miser who sold all his possessions and, with the money, bought a great lump of gold, dug a deep hole at the edge of the garden, and there he buried his gold. Once a day, thereafter, the miser went to the garden, dug up his gold, and embraced it lovingly. One of the miser's workmen wondered why his master spent so much time in the garden. One day, he hid behind a tree and soon discovered the secret of the hidden treasure. That night, when the miser was fast asleep, the workman crept into the garden and stole the lump of gold. When the miser found that his gold was gone, he tore his hair and cried aloud in his despair. A neighbour came running to see what the matter was, and the grief-stricken miser told him what had happened. Then the neighbours said, “Pray to stop your weeping. Go and find a stone. Place the stone in the hole and imagine that it is your lump of gold. The stone will serve your purpose, for you never meant to use the gold anyway.” “To a miser, what he has is of no more use than what he has not.”

Q6. How did the miser get the lump of gold?

Q7. Why did miser spend so much time in the garden?

Q8. By whom was the gold stolen?

Q9. The neighbour advised the miser to put a stone in the hole because ____.

Q10. Write an appropriate title for this passage .

Read the unseen passage given below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Jumman Shaikh and Algu Chowdhry were good friends. So strong was their bond of friendship that when either of them went away from the village, the other looked after his family. Both were greatly respected in the village. Jumman had an old aunt, who had some property. This she transferred to him, on the understanding that she would stay with him and he would look after her. The arrangement worked well for a couple of years. Then, the situation changed.

Jumman and his family were tired of the old relative. Jumman became as indifferent to her as his wife, who grudged even the little food that the old lady wanted every day. She swallowed these insults along with her food for a few months. But patience has its limits.

One day, she spoke to Jumman, “My son, it is now obvious that I am not wanted in your house. Kindly give me a monthly allowance, so that I can set up a separate kitchen.”

“My wife knows best how to run the house. Be patient,” said Jumman shamelessly. This made his aunt very angry and she decided to take her case to the village Panchayat.

A telephone conversation between two friends, Sanjay and Pankaj, took place on a Thursday afternoon.

Sanjay: Hello Pankaj. How are you? You have been absent from school for the last 2 days.

Pankaj: Hi Sanjay! I had food poisoning. Anyway, I'm better now and will be going back to school tomorrow.

Sanjay: Did you eat something which was contaminated?

Pankaj: Well, I took fried oyster and some noodles at the food centre on Tuesday night. Most likely, it was the former. It could not have been the chicken rice or fish balls I took at our school canteen during recess.

Sanjay: Oh, I see.

Pankaj: Can you please tell me if there's any homework to be done?

Sanjay: Yes, Mrs. Boon is going to conduct a Science test for our class tomorrow.

Pankaj: Thanks for letting me know. Did she say which chapters will be tested?

Sanjay: Yes, she did. The test is going to cover the chapters on "Magnets", "Classification of Materials" and "Life Cycles of Plants".

Pankaj: That's a relief. I am only unfamiliar with the chapter on "Magnets". A quick revision is all I'll need. Thanks and see you tomorrow.

Sanjay: You're welcome. Bye and take care.
